

College Recognizes Retirees

Home / News / 2024 / August / College Recognizes Retirees

Posted on August 27, 2024 by Rebekah Alegria

The Carlos Alvarez College of Business recognizes six retirees from this summer and fall. Celebrating their longstanding careers, they each have made lasting contributions to the college.

Latest News

2025 News

Maria LoRusso: Bridging Law and Finance

Maria LoRusso has served as an associate professor of practice in finance at the college for 36 years. Her unique expertise as a corporate and business law attorney enriched the classroom, where she brought together the worlds of law and finance.

Her role at UTSA has kept her at the forefront of financial industry trends, enriching her law practice and providing valuable insights to her students.